STUDYING AND LIVING IN SARAJEVO
The University of Sarajevo is not a traditional campus university, and if you are used to a campus environment, you may find it very different to study here. Member institutions are spread at different locations across the capital. Upon arrival of foreign students and staff members, if part of the mobility program, they should come to the International Relations office in order to verify their arrival and provide them needed academic and administrative information. Therefore, our office organizes:

Welcome day | Orientation week | Monitoring meetings | Local language school

ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY: History

University of Sarajevo is the first university in Bosnia and Herzegovina, originally established in the 16th century.

Gazi Husrev Bey 1480-1541
Bosniak Ottoman sanjak-bey (governor) of the Sanjak of Bosnia

Sarajevo was first placed on the map of academic centres in this part of Europe in 1573, with the signing of the Waqfname (Book of Endowment) by Gazi Husrev-bey. Today, Gazi Husrev-bey's Library is, as an associate member, the oldest institution within the University of Sarajevo. Following the departure of the Ottoman administration and the arrival of Austria-Hungary Empire, the Sharia Judicial Academy was founded in 1887, the National Museum in 1888, the Catholic Seminary of the Vrhbosna Archbishopric in 1890. On 2 December 1949 University of Sarajevo was officially established with its member institutions. Until 1975, the University of Sarajevo was the only university in Bosnia and Herzegovina and the beacon of development of higher education and science in the country.
