

WELCOME DAY FOR INCOMING STUDENTS

UNIVERSITY OF SARAJEVO | INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS OFFICE

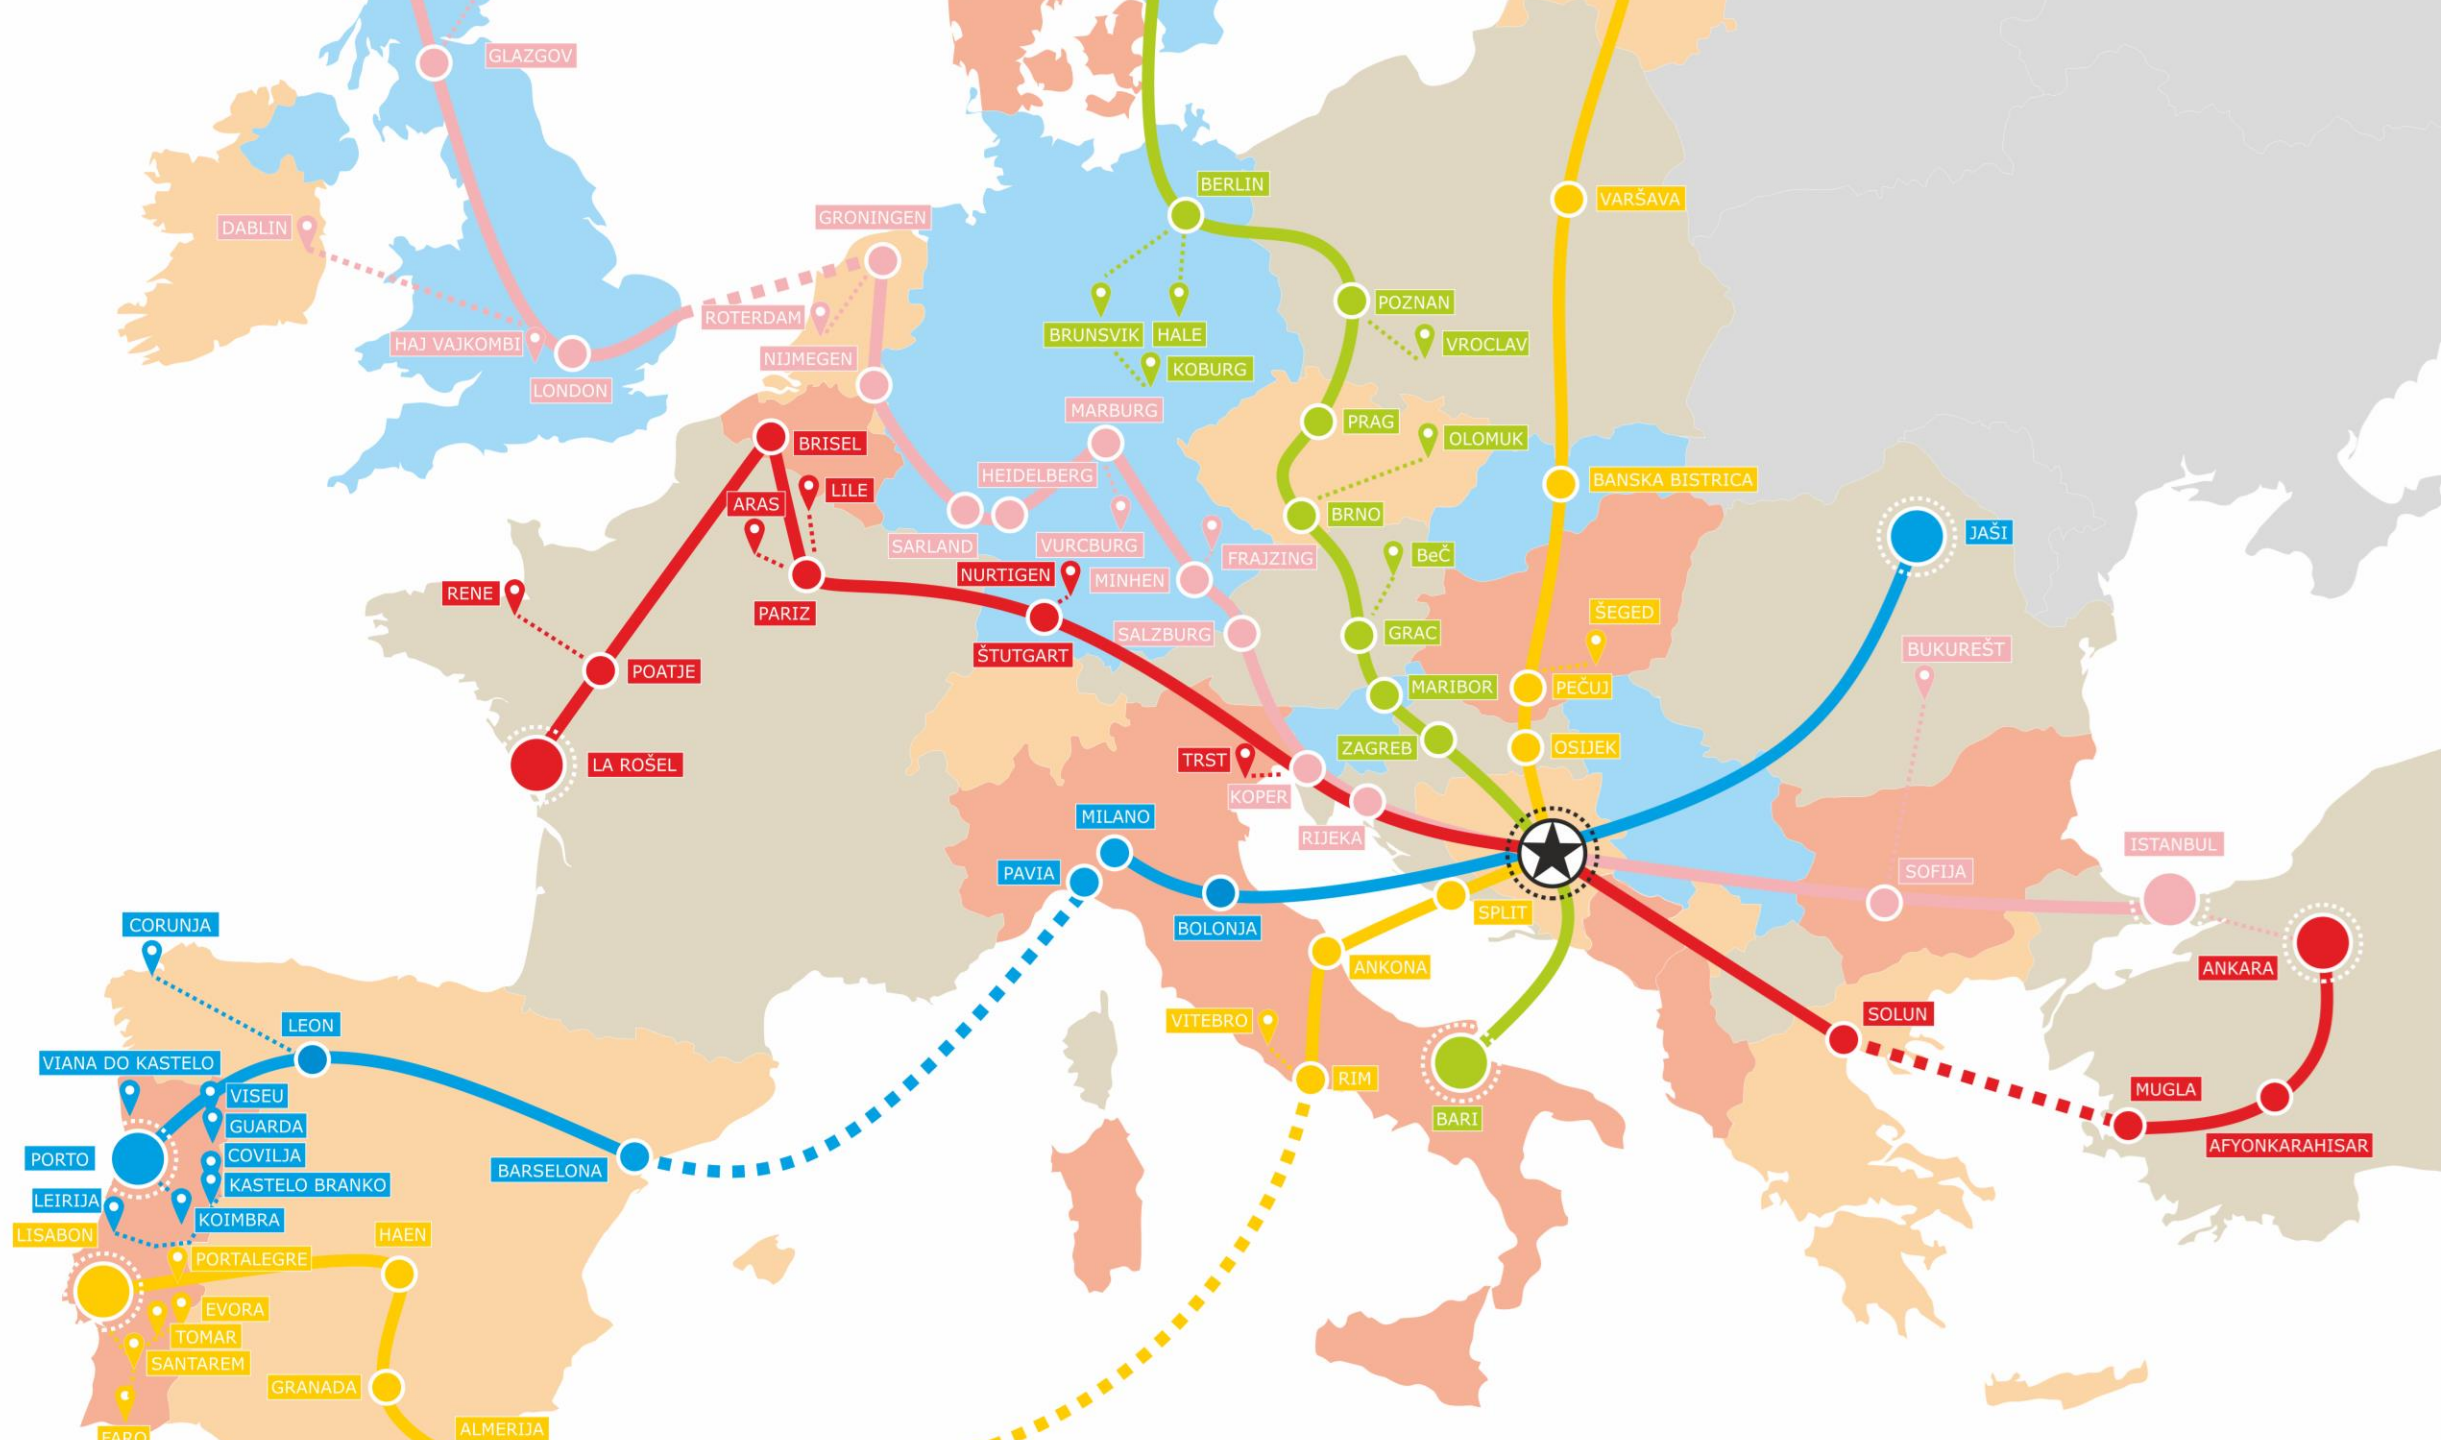

18 February 2021

Rectorate of the University of Sarajevo

An aerial photograph of Sarajevo, Bosnia and Herzegovina, showing the Miljacka River flowing through the city. The Latin Bridge is a prominent feature, crossing the river. The city is densely packed with buildings, many with red-tiled roofs. In the background, there are hills and a large, handwritten script in a cursive font, likely in German or a similar European language, which is partially obscured by the title text.

WELCOME TO SARAJEVO

The bridge between EAST and WEST

Bosnia and Herzegovina

DID YOU KNOW?

Placed in the heart of Europe with mixture of Mediterranean and continental climate (cold Winters and hot Summers).

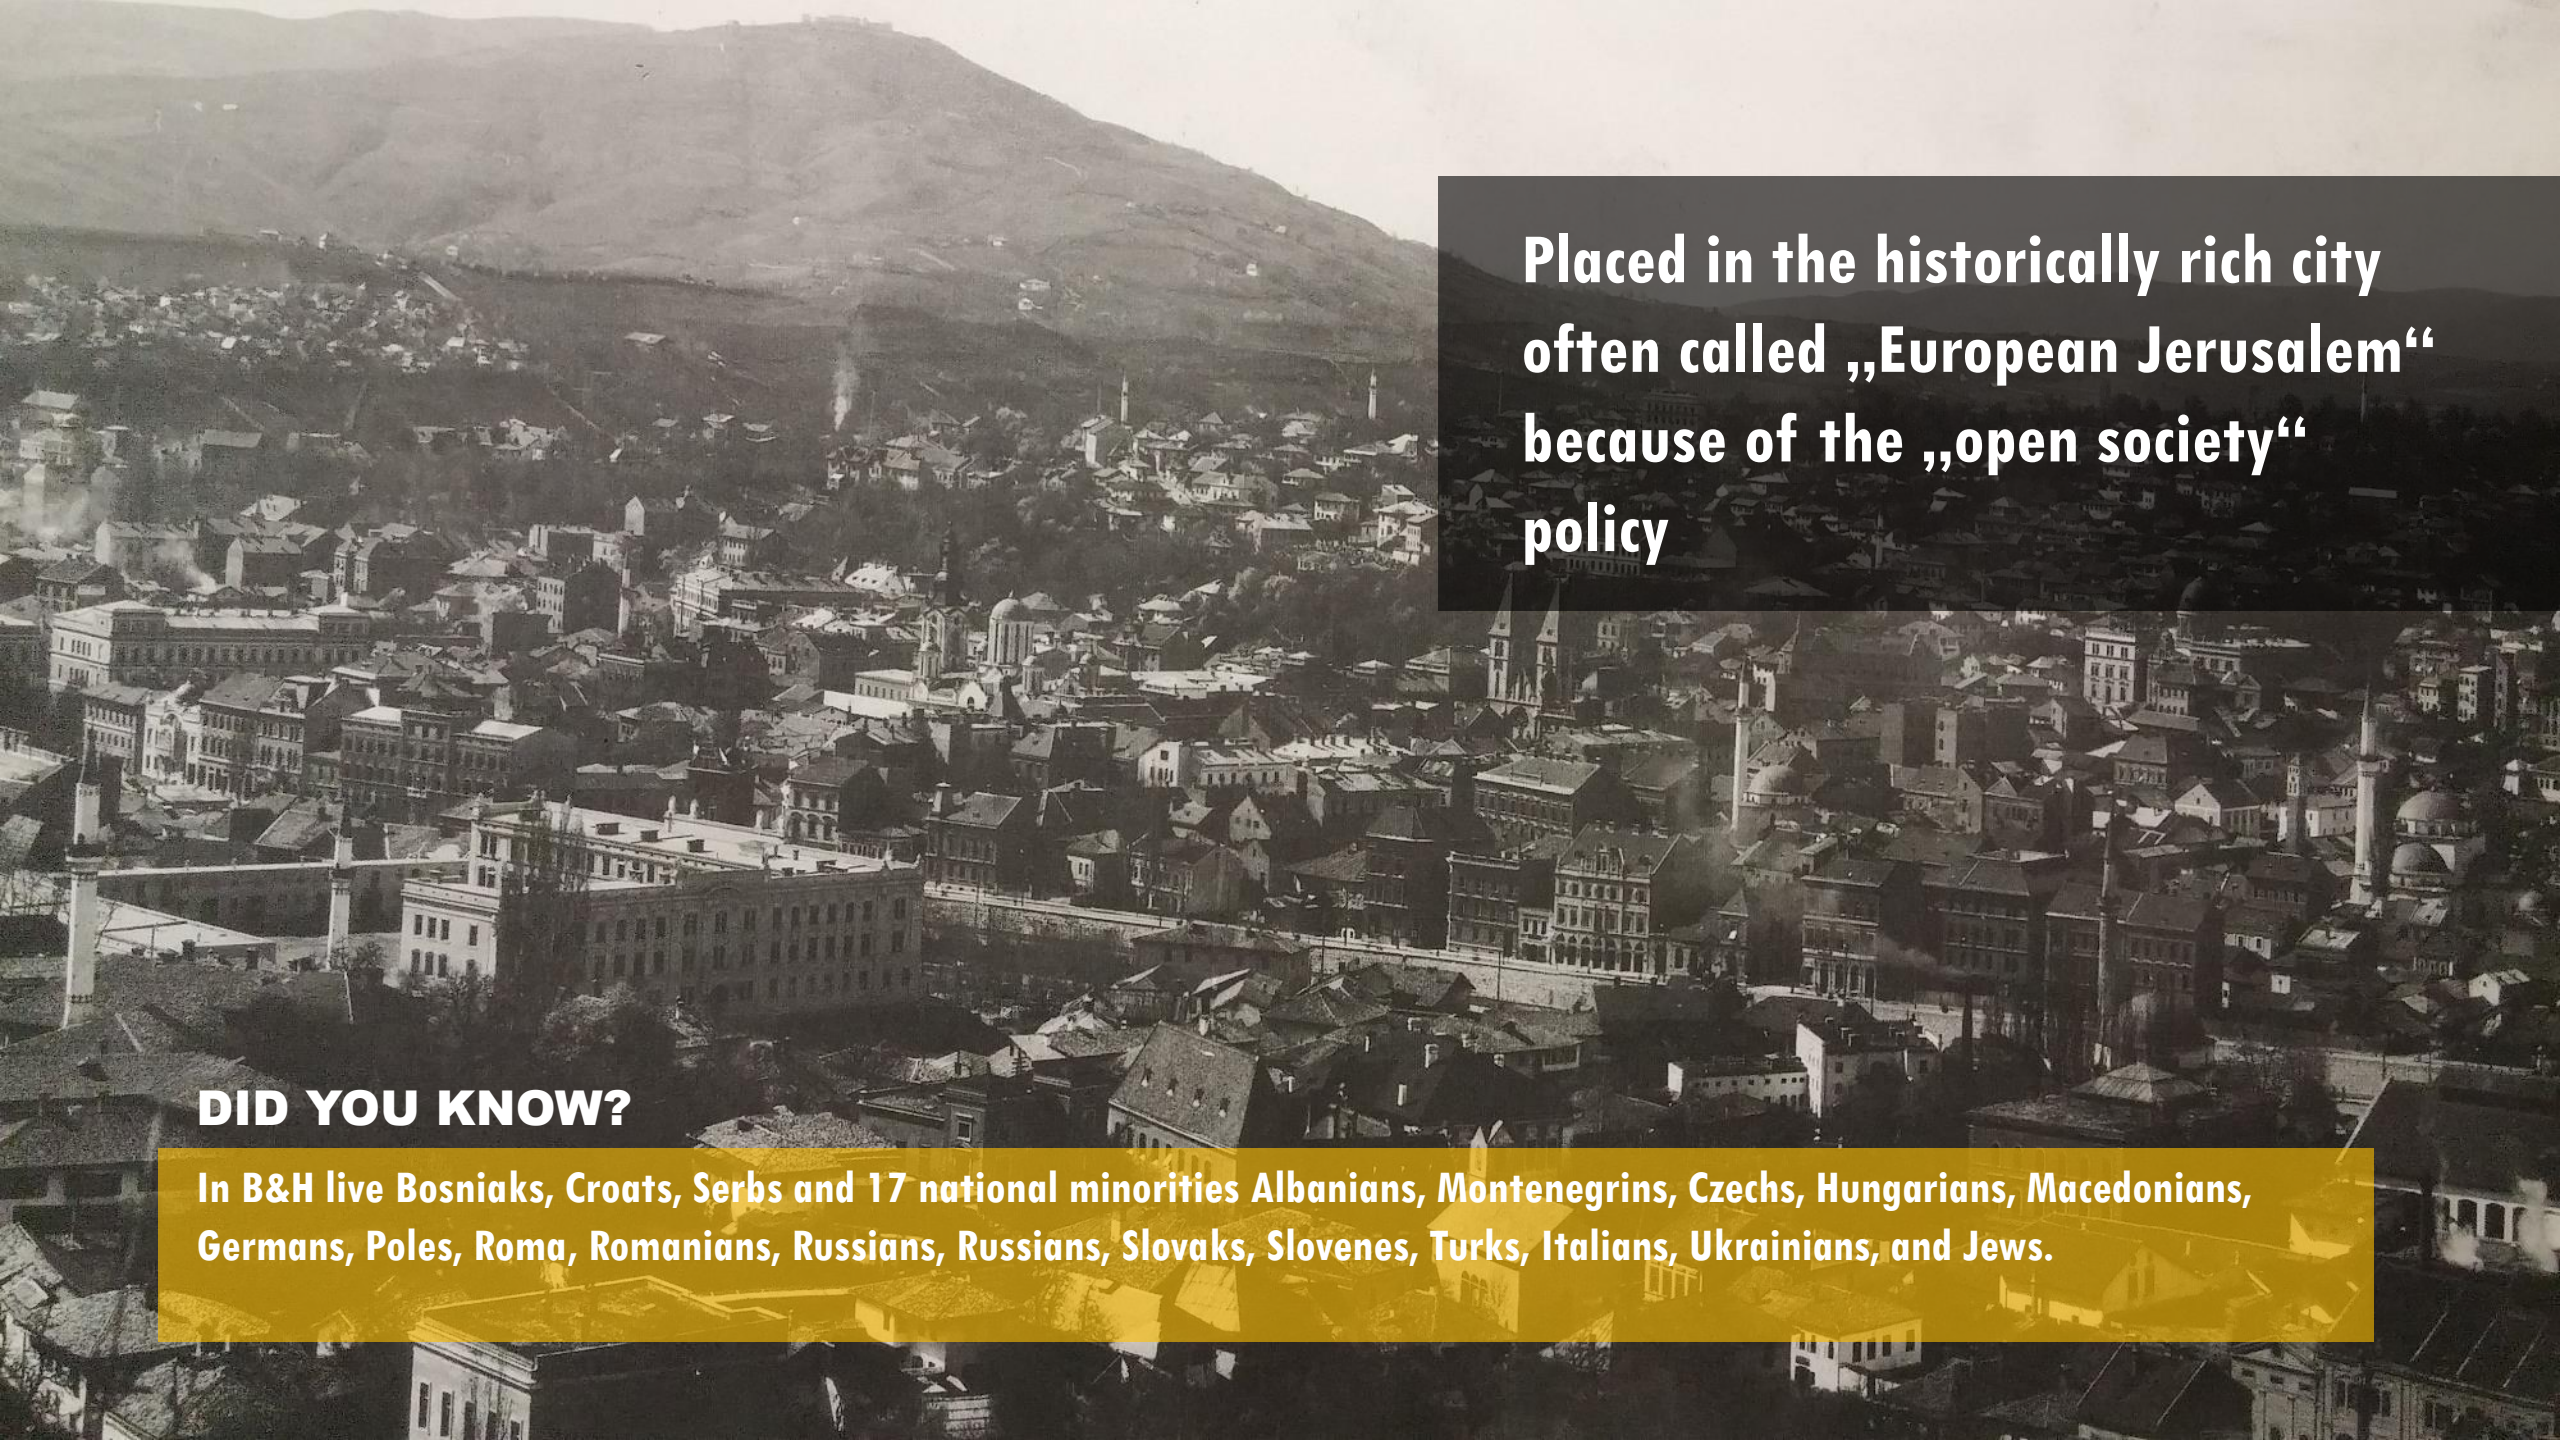

Historical overview

DID YOU KNOW?

B&H has rich history: from Illyrian and Celtic civilizations, Slavs, kingdoms, occupation, annexions, World wars, socialism to modern times.

Placed in the historically rich city often called „European Jerusalem“ because of the „open society“ policy

DID YOU KNOW?

In B&H live Bosniaks, Croats, Serbs and 17 national minorities Albanians, Montenegrins, Czechs, Hungarians, Macedonians, Germans, Poles, Roma, Romanians, Russians, Slovaks, Slovenes, Turks, Italians, Ukrainians, and Jews.

1949

The first and oldest university in Bosnia and Herzegovina

DID YOU KNOW?

Sarajevo was first placed on the map of academic centres in this part of Europe in 1573, with the signing of the Waqfname (Book of Endowment) by Gazi Husrev-bey. Today, the Gazi Husrev-bey's Library is, as an associate member, the oldest institution within the University of Sarajevo.

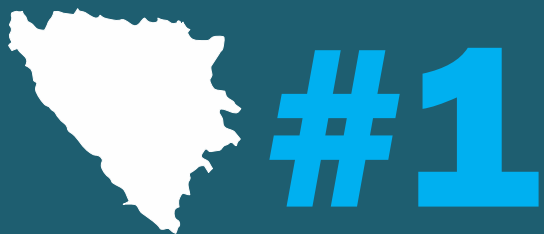

A vibrant scene at the University of Sarajevo. In the foreground, four young adults are sitting on a stone ledge, smiling and looking towards the right. A fifth person is walking past them on the right. The background is dominated by a large, multi-story green building with many windows, partially obscured by tall, dark evergreen trees. The sun is shining brightly, creating a rainbow-like lens flare in the upper right corner. The overall atmosphere is bright and lively.

It is the largest student city in Bosnia and Herzegovina.

DID YOU KNOW?

15% of Sarajevo's population are university students and 93% are students from the University of Sarajevo

DURING MOBILITY

You need to spend your mobility at the host university, which means classes, tutorials, research and other academic activities are needed to be performed at the University of Sarajevo.

Make sure to be in contact with your host coordinators.

Make sure you are in contact with your home coordinators, especially if changes are needed regarding your mobility.

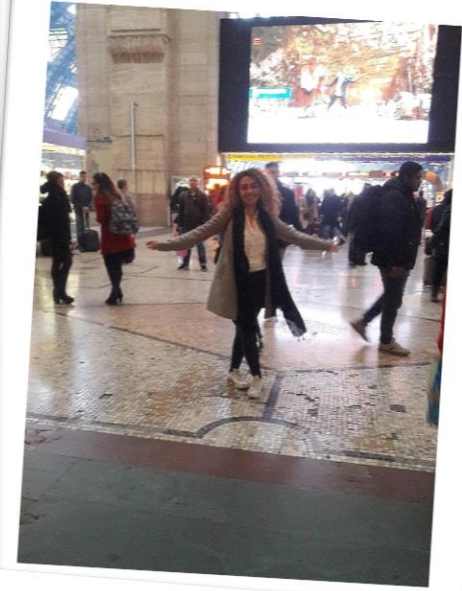

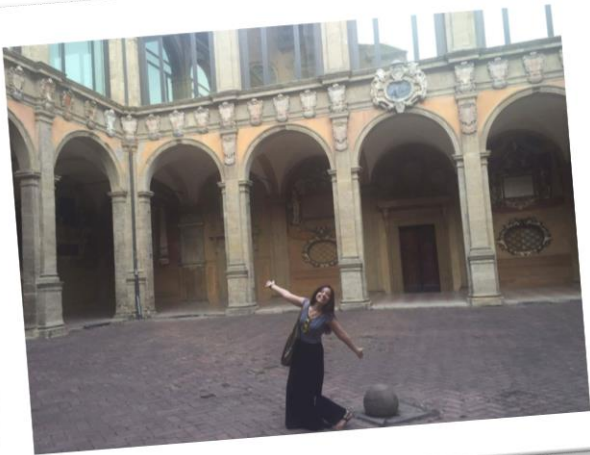

STAY SAFE and respect introduced COVID19 regulations and instructions!!!

BEFORE DEPARTING TO HOME

Before departing, make sure to contact your host coordinator and our office to confirm your end of your mobility (and sign confirmation of departure).

Student who followed classes and took exams will receive transcript of records with their achieved results (after submitting the index to the student services).

For students who did not take exams, but did research for their final work, a specialized form needs to be filled in (Final report) about student activities and research and have it signed by needed coordinators (all explained in the Final report template).
