The first and oldest university in Bosnia and Herzegovina

DID YOU KNOW?

Sarajevo was first placed on the map of academic centres in this part of Europe in 1573, with the signing of the Waqfname (Book of Endowment) by Gazi Husrev-bey. Today, the Gazi Husrev-bey's Library is, as an associate member, the oldest institution within the University of Sarajevo.

It is the largest student city in Bosnia and Herzegovina.

DID YOU KNOW?

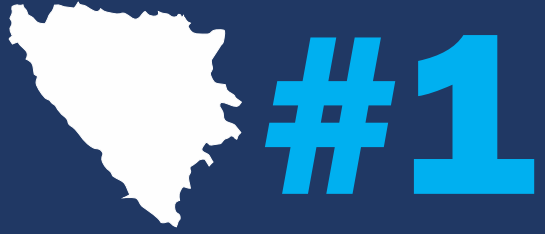

15% of Sarajevo's population are university students and 93% are students from the University of Sarajevo
